Sector
Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 1700 hrs

There are less than 20 people on Parliament Hill and a further 3-400 people in and around the Wellington, Egin, Sussex and Rideau corridor. There has been no change in the geographical boundaries or traffic control points.

The deployment of integrated police teams continues in a variety of Static Traffic, QRT, mobile response and CSET. Officers continue to educate and deter ingress of supplies to the inner perimeter with enforcement activities continuing with integrated OPS/Bylaw teams.

PLT has been actively engaged in the distribution of notification flyers which has caused a variety of impacts. There has been some agitated groups but we have also seen the departure of some vehicles. So far, eight trucks have had their egress facilitated by police. Two other groups have request to meet with police regarding departure. PLT attended the Coventry site for flyer distribution. While they were approaching the inner camp, occupants surrounded the group of officers, telling them they were not welcome and to "leave our land".

A group of protestors on Wellington have moved a long trailer perpendicular across the roadway in an apparent attempt to fortify their position.
